

Soil Health, Cover Crop, Grazing & No Till Conference "Tying it All Together"

featuring Jay Fuhrer

Thursday, February 15, 2018 10am-4pm

One Box Convention Center - Broken Bow, NE

Free Registration & Free Lunch. CEU 's applied for.

Take advantage of this opportunity to learn more about these ever evolving topics from experts in the field.

- Jay Fuhrer, nationally renowned conservationist and Soil Health expert who led the Soil Health movement in North Dakota will discuss the use of cover crops and livestock integration to connect the cropping and grazing systems together, raising the soil health bar.
- Mary Drewnoski, UNL Assistant Professor, Beef Systems Specialist will present "Thinking Outside the Box: Economical Forage Options"
- Producer panel with participants from across Nebraska who are involved in grain and ranching operations sharing the practices that work for them.
- Rich Russell, Arrow Seed Regional Sales agronomist with information about SoilBuilder™ and the commitment to Soil Health

Seating is limited so please pre-register by Monday, Feb. 12th!

For FREE Registration call Arrow Seed at 800-622-4727, 308-872-6826 or email deb@arrowseed.com. This free educational event sponsored by Arrow Seed Co., Inc.

